

Connecticut Writing Project—Storrs

2008 Connecticut Student Writers Magazine

It's that time of year again!
The Connecticut Writing Project is looking for the best student writing in the state!

- Connecticut Student Writers is a statewide magazine.
- The magazine recognizes excellent student writing in grades Kindergarten through twelve.
- We are seeking submissions from all grade levels.
- Students may submit poetry, personal memoirs, essays, drama, or short stories.
- Entries must be postmarked by January 23, 2008.
- Published writers and those receiving Honorable Mention will be invited to a Recognition Night Publication Celebration at the University of Connecticut Jorgensen Auditorium on May 20, 2008.
- Students will receive two complimentary copies of the magazine; extra copies will be on sale for $7 at Recognition Night.
